

MAJ.-GEN. THE HON. SAM HUGHES

MINISTER OF MILITIA

WILL ADDRESS A

PUBLIC MEETING

In the CORONA THEATRE

ON SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 16TH

AT EIGHT O'CLOCK SHARP

Everybody Welcome.

Reserved Seats in Balcony for the Ladies.

DR. M. B. DEAN, Chairman.

Source: <http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/firstworldwar/025005-2600-e.html>

In January of 1915, Major-General Sam Hughes, Canadian Minister of Militia and Defence from 1911-1916, visited the Twin Cities. His first speaking engagement was with the Port Arthur Women's Canadian Club at the Prince Arthur Hotel. After dinner with J.J. Carrick that evening he addressed the citizens of Fort William at the Corona Theatre to discuss Canada's involvement in the war.

PACKED HOUSE LISTENS TO SAM HUGHES
AS HE DESCRIBES METHOD BY WHICH HE BUILT UP CANADA'S NEW WAR MACHINE