

WHERE THE GUNS ARE PLAYING ON THE TRENCHES IN THE GREAT WAR

GAVE TALK ON WAR

Dr. R. J. Manion, who last night gripped a large twin city audience with his very lucid lecture on scenes he personally came in contact with at the front.

Back from the battlefield, prominent local physician and future politician Dr. R.J. Manion (Robert James) described his 3 month experience overseas to the citizens of Port Arthur and Fort William in June 1915. His first speaking engagement took place at the Fort William City Hall Auditorium and the second at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Port Arthur, both to packed houses.
